

PASSAGE OF TAX BILL IN WEEK IS HOPE

Senate Hearings to Be Opened During Coming Week

Washington, April 25.—(AP)—Chairman Harrison (D-Miss.) of the Senate finance committee today upheld the right of Congress to give a measure of relief to debt-ridden corporations as provided in the $80,000,000 House bill revising the corporate income tax structure.

Simultaneously, the Mississippi announced his committee would continue next week executive-session study of the measure now before the House and would not begin public hearings until Thursday.

Secretary Morgenthau is expected to be the first witness in open session.

"It is taking a lot of time explaining this bill," he told reporters after a third closed meeting of his committee today at which Capitol tax experts answered a barrage of questions with the aid of a black-board and chalk.

Passage by Thursday

The House is in recess, but administration chiefs hoped to pass the 249-page bill by Thursday.

Harrison said Sen. Bailey (D-N.C.), a member of the committee had questioned the constitutionality of provisions whereby corporations in debt and under contract not to pay any dividends until the debt was paid, could be allowed certain credits under the bill not given other corporations.

Herman Oliphant, general counsel of the treasury, was asked to furnish a brief on the subject.

"My own opinion is," Harrison said, "that it is merely a question of classification and Congress certainly has the right to classify these rates of taxes and give certain credits to debt-burdened corporations."

"Congress fixed a graduated tax on corporations last year with different classifications and rates."

Expect House Passage

After two days of warm debate on the bill, House leaders forecast today that it would be approved by a wide margin at their end of the Capitol and sent to the Senate within a week.

Administration chiefs were speeding up the schedule for consideration of the controversial revenue measure, hoping to pass it by Thursday night.

Leaders Optimistic

House leaders were optimistic despite a bitter attack on the revenue bill from Rep. Wadsworth (R-N.Y.). On the floor yesterday he characterized it as "another step in the deliberate plan of the administration to fasten control on all industry." He also attacked President Roosevelt on the ground that he never exhorted the nation to "thrift."

Rep. Cooper (D-Tenn.) declared the attacks on the bill were "mean-spirited generalities" and said opponents inconsistently argued both that the measure would not raise any money and that it would damage business.

"The major feature of the tax measure is a levy on corporation net income, graduated according to the percentage of profits held by the corporation instead of being distributed as dividends."

In the Senate finance committee two major questions have been raised. One concerned constitutionality of certain provisions of the measure, the other its capacity for raising the revenue demanded by the administration. The treasury was asked to furnish information on both questions.

Police Persuade Strikers To Halt Rowdy Scuffling

Cochecton, O., April 25.—(AP)—Police persuasion brought temporary peace in the month-old Indianapolis Glove Company strike today after a rowdy, vegetable-throwing siege of women workers.

A night during which fists were swung freely, clothes torn, tear gas held ready, and rotten eggs and vegetables hurled at a house affording haven to 20 beleaguered non-union women workers, ended only when police persuaded a swelling crowd of 500 to disperse.

C. O. Hershman, manager of the plant, told his superiors in Indianapolis that settlement of the strike was imperative if they ever desired to resume operations.

Brodehurst Eisey, secretary-treasurer of the company, declined comment in Indianapolis pending receipt of further information.

The strike started March 24 when A. F. of L. organizers asserted company officials planned to re-open the plant on a reduced wage scale after a shut-down.

LEE CO. GIRL BEST SPELLER OGLE CONTEST

(Telegraph Special Service)
Rochelle, April 25.—Rogene Stein, eighth grade student of district 112, Sullivan school, Lee county, Evelyn O'Donnell teacher, won the ninth annual spelling contest sponsored by the Rochelle Business & Professional Men's Association held in the high school auditorium Friday night.

Bertha Jacobs of district 79, Hoosier street school, Ogle county, Harry J. Sanford, teacher, was second and Virginia Carmichael, district 167, Moore school, Ogle county, M. Anderson, teacher, third.

Miss Stein won first place in both written and oral contests with a brilliant 97 grade and Bertha Jacobs took second in both contests by winning a 9 grade. The latter won the Ogle county contest last December.

Seventy-four contestants of forty-four schools in Ogle, Lee and DeKalb counties participated. William Angus, Northern State Teachers' college of DeKalb judged. The correct spelling of "fascious" won the contest for Miss Stein.

Winners were awarded ribbons and loving cups with a huge trophy going to the winning school. Fifteen contestants entered the written contest each receiving a ribbon.

DRIVING TESTS TO BE CONDUCTED COMING WEEK

Free Non-Compulsory Examination for All Local Motorists

Non-compulsory driving tests will be conducted beginning Monday and continuing until Saturday of next week, under the auspices of the Chicago Motor club and the Dixon Evening Telegraph at the carrier boys' room of the Telegraph office and it is hoped a large number of citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity to test their driving potentialities.

Driving testing equipment from the club's safety and traffic engineering department will be employed, seven boys from Dixon high school assisting in the tests, and operating in shifts on Thursday and Friday from noon until evening.

No obligation is incurred in connection with the tests and information obtained is entirely confidential. The tests are not designed to prove that one is or is not a good driver but the devices test one's potential ability to drive.

The devices used will analyze ability to see, hear, react, estimate speed, perceive color, see through glaring headlights, sustained rapid activity and the like.

A series of tests to be employed on those offering themselves as subjects will include reaction time, activity, motor coordination, speed estimation, strength of grip, blood pressure, glare resistance, perimeter of vision, acuity of vision, tests for phorias (double sight), depth perception, color perception, and hearing.

It is anticipated that, if possible, tests will be added to discover the driver's level of intelligence, knowledge of driving laws, his attitude toward driving and toward other motorists, his emotional or nervous stability, and a complex test indicating steering skill in combination with other factors.

Values attached to having driven.

Seeking Boy

Omaha, Neb., April 25.—(AP)—Mangus Valien, 83, arrived at the police station with a cut on the head and a complaint, "I rebuked my boy Ed for his late hours and evil companions," he said. "He hit me with a brick."

The police launched a search for the boy, who is 51.

Spring Valley Youth Collapsed in Bureau County Court When He Was Given Sentence for Patricide

(Telegraph Special Service)
Princeton, April 25.—On his plea of guilty to the murder of his father, Octave on Feb. 26, Joe E. Trillett, 23, of Spring Valley, was laid yesterday afternoon sentenced to 45 years in the Joliet penitentiary by Circuit Judge Joe E. Davis in the Bureau County circuit court, although State's Attorney Josef T. Skinner had recommended only a 30 year sentence.

A crowded court room heard the plea of guilty, the mitigating evidence presented by defense counsel Wm. W. Wilson and the sentence. The prosecutor read the confession the youth had signed the day after the crime, in which he admitted striking his father with an

"WOMAN IN RED" MUST START FOR NATIVE RUMANIA

Dillinger's Nemesis Not Bitter Toward U. S. Government

Chicago, April 25.—(AP)—John Dillinger's Nemesis, "the Woman in Red," who led the outlaw to his death at the hands of police and federal agents 21 months ago, bade farewell to family and friends today as she prepared to leave Chicago shortly after midnight on her forced departure from the United States.

Under orders to surrender at the LaSalle St. station at 6 P. M. Mrs. Anna Sage ordered deported as an undesirable alien, will be placed aboard a department of immigration coach and held a virtual prisoner until its departure for the eastern seaboard at 12:29 A. M. From Jersey City, Mrs. Sage and a group of other deportees from this vicinity will be taken to Ellis Island and placed aboard ships.

Mrs. Sage, whose deportation was based on her conviction at Gary, Ind. for operating disorderly houses, is scheduled to be taken to her native Rumania. Behind her she will leave her second husband, Alexander Sage, a railroad worker, and her son by her first marriage, Steve Chilik, 23, an American born citizen.

Blames Only Herself
Despite her unsuccessful legal battle in two federal courts to defeat the deportation order, Mrs. Sage said she believed the government had treated her fairly.

"I have only myself to blame for my present difficulties," she said, "and I am ready to pay for my mistake. I hope that the government will reconsider and allow me to return and live here with my family within a few years."

Shortly after the playing of Dillinger Mrs. Sage was taken to Los Angeles, Cal., under guard of federal agents who feared for her life if she remained in Chicago. In Los Angeles, she admitted, she was paid $5,000 reward by Samuel Cowley, department of Justice agent later slain, for her part in the killing of the notorious desperado.

Model Train to be Shown Here Tuesday

Next Tuesday from 9 A. M. until 5 P. M. the Chicago & North-Western railway company will have on exhibition near the passenger station here a modern passenger train, which the public is invited to visit. The train will consist of the newest coach, parlor car and Pullman sleeping car, typifying the thorough comfort, luxury and convenience the railway company is constantly seeking to provide for its patrons on its principal trains.

These cars are air conditioned, delightfully cool in summer and comfortably warm in winter, with all dust and travel noise excluded. Attendants will be with the train to explain and answer any questions. The exhibit is free and it is anticipated that a large number of people will take advantage of this inspection.

Scarlet Fever At Vandalia Prison Believed Halted

Vandalia, Ill., April 25.—(AP)—An epidemic of scarlet fever at the state penal farm near here was believed by health authorities to be definitely checked today.

The superintendent said medical tests revealed that a number of the inmates were immune and they were put back to work on the farms today. Others who were found susceptible to the disease have been placed under close observation he said.

The farm is under strict quarantine and all out going mail has been stopped.

Earlier in the week, it was believed that large number of the ill inmates were suffering from influenza but tests disclosed all had been stricken with scarlet fever.

Daylight Time

By The Associated Press
The clock hands will be moved up an hour at 2 A. M. tomorrow in many cities and towns of the United States, and daylight saving time will become effective.

In most of these communities clocks will be an hour fast compared with standard time until 2 A. M. Sept. 27 (the last Sunday in September), when clocks will be set back an hour.

The towns and cities observing daylight saving time this summer are in 17 states, as far south as Georgia and as far west as Idaho.

New York City will move the clock up, and so will 319 other cities and towns of New York state.

Chicago will remain on Eastern Standard time, but a number of Illinois communities, now using Central time, will go on daylight saving.

USE MACHINE IN EFFORT TO SAVE SCADDING'S FEET

Halifax, N. S., April 25.—(AP)—Physicians based today their hope of saving the crippled feet of Charles Alfred Scadding on mechanical equipment developed recently by doctors of the Cincinnati, O., General hospital.

Scadding, a patient here with Dr. D. E. Robertson, his companion for ten wracking days and nights in the old Moose River gold mine, was suffering from "trench feet," which gave attending physicians grave concern and brought a threat of gangrene.

The apparatus was a "glass boot" devised by Dr. Louis G. Hermann of Cincinnati, to pump fresh, new blood past shattered arteries of the limbs and prevent stagnation and infection.

It was rushed here by airplane and automobile during the night after it became apparent extraordinary measures would have to be taken to prevent complications that might result in the loss of the legs through amputation.

Doctors attending Scadding expressed the opinion, however, that there was no immediate necessity for amputation.

Dr. Robertson, 52-year-old Toronto surgeon, was reported in a "very satisfactory" condition by the attending physicians.

"Since arriving at the hospital Dr. Robertson has gained strength and has continued to take and retain nourishment," read the bulletin.

Cement Plant will Operate on Limited Basis May 1st.

Superintendent L. E. Smith of the Medusa Cement company plant east of the city today announced resumption of operations on a limited basis Monday, May 4, after a several months shut down period. It was indicated that the operations would be conducted along a limited scale, comparable to the program of last summer.

Crews of workers have been repairing and overhauling machinery and equipment at the plant for the past few weeks and with the resumption of operations on May 4, approximately 250 men will be employed at this plant.

Commissioner of Streets Dissatisfied With Money Allotted His Department

Refused to Accept $9,000 Specified in Ordinance

Commissioner Joe E. Vaile of the city street department has refused to accept the city's annual appropriation ordinance, which budgets the sum of $9,000 to be used in his department for the fiscal year and Mayor William Slothower is equally insistent that the city's financial condition be conducted, "out of the red."

Commissioner Vaile opposed the adoption of the annual appropriation ordinance when that measure was filed before the council last evening and placed on file for a period of one week before being presented for passage.

There was a heated discussion among members of the council preceding the meeting as Commissioner Vaile opposed his appropriation and this was renewed when the ordinance was read to the council. The commissioner of streets maintained that during the past eight years an average of $14,000 had been appropriated for his fund.

"I positively refuse to accept this appropriation and the abuse of the citizens as well as the responsibility for this department under those circumstances," the commissioner said. "I cannot accept an appropriation of $9,000 for my department with the program of work that is to be done. Last year I had $5,000 and this year $6,000. In my department, one truck is working and three are broken down and under this appropriation, I will be unable to pay employees and at the present time there is more than $2,000 worth of cleaning up work to do."

Commissioner Fred G. Dimick of the department of finance countered the street commissioner's complaint by saying:

"A week or two ago, you were informed that your appropriation would be reduced this coming fiscal year and at the same time, I told you that if it were possible to reduce expenditures at some other point, your department would be benefited by an increase. The appropriations represent about $83,000 and we will receive less than $80,000."

During his rebuke of the appropriations ordinance, Commissioner Vaile had made some reference to Oakwood cemetery and Commissioner Clyde Lenox defended his department by stating to the council that his appropriation for the coming year amounted to $6,500 and that amount had been taken in during the past year just closed, and added that the cemetery was "paying its own way." He cited the fact that increases in the lot care fund would mean an additional $500 to be added to the cemetery fund during the coming year.

Mayor Slothower replied to Commissioner Vaile's opposition to the appropriation ordinance by stating that of the stipulated $9,000 appropriation, $6,000 would be used for street repairs and incidentals and $1,000 for the cleaning of the streets in the business district.

"Commissioner Vaile is in error when he states that he will have a balance of $2,000 with which to operate his department," the mayor added. The cost of the tractor which it is proposed to purchase for his department, has been provided for and will be taken from the contingent fund. I, however, appreciate his position with regard to complaints from the public, but money cannot be spent which cannot be collected.

To Keep "Out of Red"
"I am sure that the members of this council will support my stand, taken when I entered the office, that no more money would be spent than was available. We are not going to place Dixon in the position of many other cities, 'in the red.' It is true that more money was expended in years past, but at those times the money was available. As long as I am mayor of Dixon the city's bills are going to be paid and the city is not going to be run into debt."

The appropriation measure was then filed to be open for public inspection for a period of one week, and will be presented for passage at the next meeting of the council.

A communication from the road and bridge committee of the supervisors notified the city that legal proceedings would be instituted in the event that further damage resulted to the Rock Island road and bridge structures, due to the diversion of water from natural courses. County Superintendent of Highways Fred Leake presented oral complaints to Commissioner Vaile of the street department earlier in the week.

Praises Police, Firemen
Commissioner Cal G. Tyler of the department of public health and safety, commented upon the

YOUNG PARKER OBJECT SEARCH THROUGH EAST

Brooklyn, N. Y., April 25.—(AP)—District Attorney William F. X. Geoghan pressed a police search in eight states today for Ellis H. Parker, Jr., one of five men indicted on charges of kidnapping and assaulting Paul H. Wendel.

While the search for Parker and two of the other indicted men went on, Geoghan looked to the Kings county grand jury in Brooklyn for possible indictments of others. Wendel told the grand jury he was tortured until he "confessed" the Lindbergh kidnapping.

"I am satisfied that there are many others implicated," Geoghan said. These, he added, may include "some public officials of New Jersey."

Asked if the officials to which he referred held elective offices, he replied:

"I do not say elected officials at this time. I don't know yet what the ramifications of the case will be."

Besides Parker, the police are searching for Murray Bleefeld and Harry Weiss. The other two indicted, Martin Schlossman and Harry Bleefeld, are in custody.

Parker is the son of Ellis H. Parker, Sr., chief detective of Burlington county, New Jersey, to whose home Wendel was taken a few weeks ago after he said he had been held in Brooklyn.

ALEDO SLAYER TALKS TO WIFE IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. John Collins is Asked to Return to Assist Husband

Aledo, Ill., April 24.—(AP)—Permitted by Mercer county officials to talk by telephone with his wife last night, John H. Collins, 39, New Boston lock foreman who is charged with the murder of Roger Johnson, 19, of Keithsburg, urged her to return to Mercer county from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Louise Collins, the attractive 36-year-old wife left this county April 11 and the shooting of Johnson is said to have been an aftermath of her flight.

Johnson is claimed to have served as Mrs. Collins' chauffeur on her trip west by automobile and then to have returned to Keithsburg alone.

In the telephone conversation last night from the Mercer county jail where Collins is held without bond, Collins spoke affectionately to his wife. She was reached at the home of Los Angeles friends where she is staying. A part of the time Mrs. Collins was weeping, officials said, and asked Collins why he killed the boy. Collins did not reply to this question.

Mrs. Collins said she had no knowledge of the fatal shooting until informed of it Thursday night by Los Angeles detectives.

State's Attorney Stanton H. Prentiss and Sheriff Floyd Clark also conversed with Mrs. Collins and she said to them she had not decided whether she would return here. However, the impression gained by Mercer county officials is that she will return to be present for Collins' trial.

Officials of Mercer county will file notice Monday of the recall of the grand jury in Circuit court and Judge L. E. Telleen will fix the day next week at which the grand jury will report to hear the evidence against Collins.

The shooting of Johnson took place last Tuesday morning at his home in Keithsburg.

No Lindbergh Ransom Money in New England Says President of Federal Reserve; Agents Alert

Boston, April 25.—(AP)—Faced with recurrent reports that $20,000 in Lindbergh ransom money had turned up in New England in the past two weeks, Federal agents today enigmatically explained away an armed mob's sortie as "target practice."

The reports, published by the Boston Post, were emphatically denied by Clarence D. McKean, head of the Boston bureau of the department of justice.

"There is absolutely nothing to it," he insisted.

Unusual activity among Federal agents has been evident in this area

G-MEN PROBE HIJACKING IN THIS COUNTY

Force of Federal Men Aid Lee County's Authorities

Federal Department of Justice agents from the Chicago and East St. Louis districts converged in Dixon today, investigating hi-jack and crime rings of central Illinois, members of which are believed to have kidnapped William A. Mess and John Franzen, Clinton, Iowa farmers, last Sunday night and hijacked a load of 55 hogs east of Franklin Grove on the Lincoln Highway. Two men implicated in the case were prisoners in the Lee county jail while a third was held in another county which Sheriff Miller refused to name.

Frank Donaldson, 48, of Peoria, according to Sheriff Miller is held in a county jail in northern Illinois and Ignatz Vidic of Pekin and George Ambrust of near Havana, Ill., are prisoners in the county jail here. A fourth suspect was taken in custody late yesterday afternoon by Whiteside county sheriff's deputies and brought to the county jail, but it was expected that he would be released today. Officials stated that he was an ex-convict and had been in Dixon recently.

G-Men Are Active.

Donaldson, identified by Mess as one of the kidnapers, and alleged members of a well organized gang of Peoria county gangsters, was taken from the Tazewell county jail at 9:30 yesterday morning in charge of Chief Deputy Gilbert Finch and, under a heavy guard, was removed to another jail. Shortly before 8 o'clock last evening Sheriff Miller and Deputy Finch returned from Pekin with George Ambrust and shortly additional federal investigators arrived. It was learned that a department of justice agent has been in Dixon since Tuesday investigating the kidnapping and hi-jacking from this locality while other operatives worked in Pekin and Peoria.

Donaldson, according to dispatches from Peoria, is at liberty under $15,000 bonds on an appeal from the federal court of the Peoria district on a ten-year interstate auto theft term imposed last summer.

United States District Attorney Howard L. Doyle of Peoria is quoted as stating late yesterday that unless Donaldson is surrendered in federal court Wednesday for commitment to the federal penitentiary, proceedings will be started at once to forfeit the $15,000 bond posted last July before Donaldson appealed unsuccessfully to the United States circuit court of appeals. The mandate affirming his conviction was received from the appeals court last week.

Denies Complicity.
Before taking his hurried departure from Pekin Friday forenoon, Donaldson is said to have told his wife and son, "save your money." Donaldson denies any part in the Sunday night crime and insists that he does not know Ambrust or "Butch" Vidic.

Yesterday attorneys and friends of Donaldson attempted to contact him at the Tazewell county jail at Pekin without success after his removal to a northern Illinois county jail. Officials of Peoria, Tazewell and Mason counties and railroad special agents, many of whom were conducting investigations yesterday, declared that in the event that the federal investigation now under way is successful that it will result in the breaking up and exposure of a notorious band of central Illinois thugs and bandits.

Donaldson is said to be suffering from a chronic heart affliction and ill health and both Lee and Tazewell county officials declared him to be a "sick man." Ambrust suffered a heart attack in the county jail at Pekin Thursday night and his condition necessitated the services of a physician. Enroute to Dixon last evening, just south of Bradford, he suffered another attack and required medical attention.

Two Others Sought.
Two others who have been identified in the bureau at the Peoria police department and the Tazewell county sheriff's collection, are being sought in that district. Both were identified from photographs by Mess as the kidnapers.

Before midnight last night, Sheriff Miller swore out a warrant before Justice J. O. Shaulis charging Donaldson with the larceny of 55 hogs of the value of $1,500. State's Attorney Edward A. Jones questioned Mess upon his return to Dixon last evening with Sheriff Miller, after which Mess made charges against Donaldson, Vidic and Ambrust.

Mess filed charges of kidnapping and armed robbery of 55 hogs of the value of $1,500 against Donaldson.

YOUR TRUTH

By Joseph Fort Newton
H. Tchekov! Why are you dead? Why can't I talk with you in a big darkish room, at late evening?" So Katherine Mansfield wrote, wishing she might meet in the flesh one who was a friend of her spirit.

No doubt some have wished they might meet Katherine Mansfield herself in some lovely room in London, or on a terrace in Tuscany, where she fought grim death so gallantly and won even as she seemed to lose.

Twice it was my joy to see her vivid and sensitive face before she went away, and no one who saw her can ever forget her. She loved life with such ardor and adoration, and wrote of it with such radiance.

She taught us deep truth—"her truth" her husband called it—knowing that each soul sees a truth no other soul can see. Only, alas, so few can tell the truth they see, in their own unique, individual manner.

After learning from Tchekov and others, Katherine found her own voice, her own art, and told her truth in stories unlike any others, painting the thing as she saw it "for the God of things as they are."

After all, perhaps it is better to be out our truth, and the life of a man is his version of the truth, whether he knows it or not. He may be inarticulate as to words, but his deeds tell us his truth.

It takes courage and sincerity to tell our truth, which may be quite unlike the truth which others see. To trust our own souls, see with our own eyes, and tell what we see as we see it—that is life.

"I believe in something," said Katherine Mansfield. "Let's call it truth. It's a very big thing. We have to discover it. That's what the artist is for—to become true by discovering truth," she added.

"Truth is so important that when you discover a tiny bit of it, you forget all about everything else—and all about yourself." Indeed, until we forget about self we cannot find truth, much less tell it.

Marriage Vows

For Miss Salzman And August Krug

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krug of 303 Artesian Avenue announce the wedding of their sister, Miss Josephine H. Salzman and August Krug, which took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the Charles Krug home.

The quiet wedding ceremony was solemnized in the presence of twenty-five relatives by the Reverend A. G. Suchting, pastor of the Emmanuel Lutheran church, of which both the bride and bridegroom are members.

Miss Anna Paulhaber of Chicago and Charles Krug attended the bride and bridegroom. After the congratulations light refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Krug, who are both highly esteemed Dixonites will make their home at 617 Palmyra avenue, and hosts of friends extend best wishes to them for happiness.

D. U. V. Held Profitable Meeting Thurs.

The ladies of Anna Kellogg Baker Tent, No. 81, Daughter of Union Veterans, met Thursday evening at the G. A. R. hall with a good attendance present. The usual business program was observed after which the "traveling kitchen" reached its destination and resulted in the securing of a liberal donation to be used in providing a suitable memorial at the state department convention in Moline during the summer. Many books and magazines were reported forwarded to the Dixon state hospital. The committee named for May is composed of Cora Etheridge, Lillian A. Allen and Addie Eastman.

Six newspapers printed in modern Arabic are published in New York City.

Style Show And Party Sponsored By Shrine and O.E.S. A Great Success

The Spring Style Revue and Tea yesterday afternoon at Masonic Temple and the public card party and Style Revue, held last evening at the Temple, were largely attended and voted unqualified successes by the large number of guests attending. Both afternoon and evening parties and style shows were sponsored by Corinthian Shrine of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, and by Dorothy Chapter, O. E. S., and Miss Ruth Kerz, Worthy High Priestess of Corinthian Shrine, and Mrs. Howard Bastian, Worthy Matron of the Star, and their faithful committees, deserve much credit and praise for the delightful afternoon and evening, and the success thereof.

In the afternoon the Style Revue was held with models gracefully exhibiting up to the minute and lovely garments for spring and summer from the Kathryn Beard Shop, the rooms being appropriately decorated.

During the afternoon and evening an organ recital was given by William Bennett of the Hammond Clock Co., Chicago on the marvelous new Hammond electric organ. Those who have not heard this new type of organ have missed a musical treat. A group of young ladies served tea during the afternoon.

As the models promenaded filling each feminine heart with inspiration and longing, Mrs. Chas. Bishop played the organ to which the models kept time, as they exhibited their gowns, and coats, and hats, and wraps and evening formal, and last evening the same procedure took place at the Style Show and card party. There were about thirty tables at the card party and everyone had a jolly evening. Auction and contract bridge were played. Sterling Schrock received the door prize, candy, donated by James Cleidon. Mrs. Lee Read received the first prize for the ladies at auction bridge, a lamp donated by the Kreim Furniture Co. The second ladies prize at auction bridge was won by Mrs. Pearl Billmire of Sterling, a plant donated by Fallstrom, the Florists. The first prize at auction bridge for the men was won by Harry Quick, which was a smoking stand donated by Bellott Furniture Co. The second auction bridge prize for the men was won by Russell Byers, a receipt for the cleaning of a garment from Pottery Cleaning establishment.

The first prize for contract bridge for the ladies was won by Mrs. H. M. Price, fruit donated by the Dixon Fruit Co.

The second prize for contract bridge was won by Virginia Johnston, which was meat donated by the City Meat Market.

The first contract bridge prize for the men was won by Harry Graff, a cigarette case donated by the Trein Jewelry store.

The second contract bridge prize for men was won by Albert Hanneken, a tie donated by the Isadore Eichler Clothing Store.

Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

Blanche Waddell and Albert White to Wed

Chicago, April 25.—(AP)—Miss Blanche Waddell, tall brunette chosen in 1933 as the University of Illinois' most beautiful co-ed and later as the "Big Ten beauty queen" will become the bride of Albert S. White, 30, an advertising man.

The two obtained a marriage license yesterday at the county building. Miss Waddell said no date had been set for the wedding.

Her engagement to Francis J. Platt of Chicago, whom she had known at the university, was announced a year ago, but Miss Waddell said today "it didn't work out."

Since her graduation, Miss Waddell, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shannon W. Waddell of Chicago, has been a model. She is 22.

Missionary Society At Rowlands' Home

The Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Rowland.

The president, Mrs. Harry Thomson, presided and Mrs. W. C. Durkes was in charge of the devotions.

Mrs. J. E. Young gave a most interesting and informing account of missionary work.

Mrs. George Dixon gave a report of the recent Presbyterian in Fulton and repeated her paper read at that meeting.

Temple refreshments were served by Mrs. Rowland with Mrs. Raymond and Mrs. Durkes presiding at the attractive table.

Y. W. M. S. MISSION STUDY CLASS POSTPONED—The meeting of the mission study class of the Young Women's Missionary Society of St. Paul's Lutheran church, which was to have been held at the parsonage next Tuesday evening, has been indefinitely postponed.

Roquefort Dressing
Strawberry Shortcake
Coffee

Creamed Onions
8 medium sized onions
3 tablespoons butter
4 tablespoons flour
1-2 cups milk
1-2 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon paprika
Peel onions, cover four inches with cold water. Slowly bring to boil, drain and cover again with water. Add one-third teaspoon salt. Bring to boil and drain again. Cover four inches with water and boil until onions are tender when tested with fork. Drain thoroughly. Melt butter, add flour and when mixed add milk and seasonings, cook until thick sauce forms. Stir constantly. Add hot onions and serve immediately.

Roquefort Cheese Dressing
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon onion juice
1 teaspoon celery seed
2 tablespoons sugar
4 tablespoons vinegar
1 cup salad oil
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1-4 cup Roquefort cheese
Crumble cheese with fork, add to rest of ingredients, combined. Beat with fork until blended. Chill, mix and serve on salad. Store dressing in covered jar in refrigerator.

Strawberry Shortcake (Biscuit Kind)
1-1/2 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1-4 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons fat
1-2 cup milk
3 cups berries
2-3 cup sugar
2 tablespoons butter
Mix flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in fat with a knife. Mixing with knife add milk. When a soft dough forms, divide into four pieces and pat out each piece until two-thirds inch thick. Bake 15 minutes on greased pan in moderate oven.

Enjoyable Meeting Palmyra Aid at Mrs. Chas. Weisze Home

The Palmyra Mutual Aid Society met Wednesday with Mrs. Chas. Weisze and Mrs. Pete Miller, with Mrs. Wm. Weisze assisting.

Twenty-five members and three visitors enjoyed the delicious picnic dinner served at noon.

The president, Mrs. Maud Lawton opened the meeting. All joined in singing, "At the Cross." Mrs. Mark Williams read the scripture lesson, it being the fifth chapter of St. Matthew.

The president led in prayer. Usual reports were given. It was decided that the members sponsor a play soon, the proceeds to be used for the Sugar Grove church.

Mrs. Leon Hart delighted everyone with a piano solo.

Mrs. Mark Williams had charge of a game which all enjoyed. Mrs. Ed Mensch won the first prize.

Mrs. Blin Bryan and Mrs. Pete Miller will have charge of the games for the next meeting to be held May 13th. The place of the meeting will be announced later. Everyone thanked the hostesses for the very enjoyable day spent.

RETURNS TO UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN AFTER VISIT—

Elks Children's Party on Saturday May 9

The Elks are contemplating the holding of their annual children's and youths' party at the clubhouse on East Second street, Saturday May 9.

League of Women Voters National Convention, Cincinnati

Illinois members of the League of Women Voters will find added urge to attend their organization's national convention next week (April 27th to May 1st) because it will convene in Cincinnati, and Cincinnati looms as an inspiring Gibraltar of good municipal government to this group of women who are earnestly working to bring about like governmental reform in Chicago and Illinois.

The Hotel Netherlands Plaza will be the gathering place for eight hundred women from all over the country and a stimulating program has been provided for them.

This biennial convention is significant because the program of work for the next two years, for Leagues in all 48 states and Hawaii, is adopted here, including items both for study and for active support.

Trends of the times are scanned, and as certain adverse trends become more apparent in the governmental kaleidoscope, these are urged for special correctional emphasis in the program of work. The threat to the public school systems brought about by the depression seems to challenge action, as well as the need for more efficient administration of government, so that "larger units for school taxation and administration," "sufficient and scientifically apportioned funds for public education," and "reorganization of government to promote efficient administration" will be proposed for emphasis in the next two years.

Although the convention proper will not begin until two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Department chairmen will meet the preceding evening to discuss their proposed program of work, there will be a round table on program methods at nine on Tuesday, and the General Council, made up of the President and one other delegate from each state, will confer at ten in preparation for the larger session.

An address by J. Roy Blough, professor of Economics at the University of Cincinnati on "Paying the Bill for Public Service" will feature the business session that opens the convention at 2 o'clock.

Heads Ogle Clubs

Successful president of the Federated Women's clubs of Ogle county for the past three years, Thursday, at a meeting in Oregon, Mrs. Coffman was presented with a gorgeous bouquet of flowers by the members of her home club in Polo.

ity on the problems facing the states in achieving full acceptance of its measures.

The social security program will be approached from another angle by Dr. Martha M. Eliot, Assistant Chief of the Children's Bureau and member of the Yale University Medical School faculty. She is slated to speak on the maternal and child welfare services of the social security program.

A move entitled "Cincinnati" is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon to diversify the business and speaking program, and sometime during the convention a skit will be presented by two Illinois delegates: Mrs. W. W. Ramsey of Chicago and Mrs. Orville N. Foreman of Jacksonville.

An innovation will be the "Twenty-five Little Dinners" Wednesday evening, when delegates from different parts of the country will meet in small groups and find opportunity to attach faces and personalities to what have been mere printed names to them before.

Frank P. Hixon of Lake Forest, President of the Illinois League, Mrs. Ramsey and Mrs. G. A. Tawney of Urbana will each be hostess at a dinner. The "Little Dinners" will be followed by three large group meetings with outside speakers.

By Thursday the convention dilutes its serious program with a large proportion of festivities. Luncheon will be enjoyed by a debate between three colorful personalities: Clarence F. Dykstra, city manager of Cincinnati, Karl A. Llewellyn, Professor of Law at Columbia University, and Max Lerner, economist and editor of the Nation.

Evolving governmental relations trips, the proper role and functions of government and the constitution will all be touched upon.

Highlight of the convention is the banquet Thursday evening, and this year it is to have an international tinge. "America and Europe Search for Peace" will be the topic of the evening, and it will be in the hands of two competent news commentators and economists: Carlos Davila, former President of Chile and former Chilean ambassador to the United States, and Dr. Gustav Stolper, member of the Reichstag from 1929 to 1932 and economic and financial counselor in the United States since 1933.

Following the closing business session Friday morning, State Senator T. V. Smith of Illinois, Professor of Philosophy at the University of Chicago, will speak on "How the League Looks to a Legislator." From opinions Sen. Smith has expressed privately, his treatment of this theme may be expected to send his audience home from the convention pleased and encouraged, and "like a strong man ready to run a race."

Mrs. Quincy Wright, Mrs. Haselton Byrd Taylor, Mrs. Laura Hughes Lunde, Mrs. Maurice Polak, Mrs. Jacob Viner, Mrs. George Bogert, all of Chicago; Mrs. Marc A. Law and Mrs. Raymond S. Simons of Highland Park; Mrs. Walter Fisher and Mrs. William G. Hibbard of Winnetka; Mrs. Donald H. Mann of Evanston; Mrs. E. G. Hamel Maywood, Mrs. E. J. Smith of LaGrange and Mrs. Murdo Ross of Wilmette are others who will go as delegates from Illinois.

A Club Woman's Diary Notes That

Thursday, April 23 a meeting of the Ogle county Woman's clubs spring conference held in the Lutheran church at Oregon...

At noon, in a new, fresh and appetizing manner, Mrs. Roland Kiest, Oregon's club president, announced luncheon. And into the basement dining room filled a stream of attractive ladies dressed in spring attire. Mrs. Joy Parker, of Anboy, was wearing a mannish-tailored gray suit with a generous sized bow tie of some soft red material; Mrs. C. C. Ellis, Rochelle, had on a knit, its henna color thoroughly enlivened by the right choice of flowers trimming her hat; Mrs. A. H. Beebe, Stillman Valley, was dressed in a bright blue and dull gold model.

"Gayety and humor," the moods electrical, provided the setting for complete appreciation of a good meal, nicely served. Good public response followed the musical treat begun at 1:30, furnished by three of Franklin Lundstrom's violin pupils, in trio, and by the best voices from each of the ten clubs, in chorus, Jane Harris Stiles, leader.

"Every woman's group should unite for real aid in their community and every welfare group should work with other local charitable organizations to the end that every needy person should be succored sympathetically and sanely." Present in the capacity of speaker for the afternoon with Miss Maud Baxter, of Rochelle.

Meeting Dixon Household Science Club

The Dixon Household Science club met Thursday, April 16 with Mrs. Raymond Hodges. Several guests were present.

The meeting opened with a song by the members, "America, the Beautiful." Mrs. Bessie Hodges, county Household Science president, gave a report on her recent trip to Freeport where plans were made for a county institute to be held this fall. Also for a canning demonstration to be held in the near future.

After the business meeting the ladies sewed on their quilt blocks. Quilt blocks will be made next month for Mrs. Ida Mundorff.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess after which the ladies departed having spent a most enjoyable afternoon.

Mrs. Sargent Was Hostess to Club

The Twentieth Century Literary club held its regular meeting on Thursday evening with Mrs. C. H. Sargent. After roll call and a short business meeting, Mrs. Ball gave a very interesting review of "Thelma" by Marie Corelli. Mrs. Nelles reported on the New York Times. A social hour followed during which time Mrs. Sargent served very tempting refreshments. The next meeting will be held May 14 with Mrs. E. B. Ryan. Mrs. Deutsch is to be the speaker.

An address by J. Roy Blough, professor of Economics at the University of Cincinnati on "Paying the Bill for Public Service" will feature the business session that opens the convention at 2 o'clock.

The meeting will be followed by tea at the Taft Museum, at which delegates, as guests of the Cincinnati League, will be greeted by some of Cincinnati's most distinguished citizens.

Mystery cloaks the Tuesday evening program. It is to be a session of "Trained Personnel for Public Service" and Floyd W. Reeves (Professor of Education at the University of Chicago and former Personnel Director of the Tennessee Valley Authority) is to address it. But the special stunts that link the session with the League's campaign to eliminate the spoils system remain undivulged by their director, Mrs. George Gellhorn of St. Louis, who heads the National Campaign.

Wednesday will be brim-full of events. Business sessions morning and afternoon will be marked by speeches from five outstanding individuals. Mrs. Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, son of the late President Taft, and a nationally known government reform advocate, will deal with general problems in reorganization of local units. He is the author of "City Management—the Cincinnati Experiment."

Professor John Fay Foxwicks, Professor of Education at the University of Wisconsin, will discuss the increasing need for reorganization of school units. This is in harmony with the League's findings that on larger units for school taxation and administration depends the equalization of educational opportunity which has in the past been the glory of our democracy, and in the future will be an essential of its preservation.

Reciprocal trade agreements will be considered by Henry F. Grady, Chief of the Division of Trade Agreements in the State Department, particularly their possibilities of benefit to the consumer by their freeing of the international trade. Mr. Grady is an experienced international trade expert now serving the government on leave of absence from the University of California where he has been Professor of International Trade and Dean of the College of Commerce.

Frank Bane, who until recently resided in Chicago as head of the American Public Welfare Association, will talk on the federal social security program. As executive secretary of the Social Security Board, he can speak with authority on the problems facing the states in achieving full acceptance of its measures.

The social security program will be approached from another angle by Dr. Martha M. Eliot, Assistant Chief of the Children's Bureau and member of the Yale University Medical School faculty. She is slated to speak on the maternal and child welfare services of the social security program.

WHO CAUSES ACCIDENTS

Much misinformation is current because we merely repeat what we have heard some uninformed person say.

One of the craziest statements that was not and is not true pertains to the small number of persons possessing a large percentage of the wealth. Yet it has come from person to person and has been uttered from platforms as truth. It has been possible to set truth on its trail, but a lie travels much faster than truth.

Have you ever heard any one say that more accidents are caused by slow drivers than by fast drivers? So have we.

What are the facts?
We have compiled no statistics, but at hand are those of the department of public works and buildings, in which the automobile division has carried on a safety campaign.

Figures are for January and February, 1936. They disclose that within that period there were 1868 accidents in Illinois in which a person was killed or injured, 262 having been killed.

How many accidents charged against somebody driving too fast for conditions? Four hundred fifteen.

How many charged against persons driving too slow for conditions? One.

How many deaths charged against persons driving too fast for conditions? Forty-six.

How many deaths charged against persons driving too slow for conditions? None.

Highest in both fatal and non-fatal accidents are those listed as "Due to pedestrian." It is not clear to us whether this description is merely a record that the accident involved a pedestrian or is intended to indicate that the pedestrian was responsible for the accident.

What violations of the driving code cause the most accidents is shown in the record of January and February, as follows:

Inattention, 135; reckless driving, 16; on wrong side of road, 56; driver had been drinking, 101; driver asleep or incapacitated, 36; driver confused, 20; too fast for conditions, 415; too slow for conditions, 1; failed to stop at stop sign, 88; disregarded signal, 12; failed to signal or signaled improperly, 14; following too closely, 11; improper turning, 23; improper passing, 33; improper parking, 31; did not have right of way, 33; obscure vision, 87; insufficient light, 21; accident due to pedestrian, 570; loose animal on highway, 1; mechanical defects, 27; puncture or blow-out, 4; unknown, 29; miscellaneous, 104.

In 1935 the death rate for each 100,000 population was 29.4, a reduction from 32.7 in 1934. The rate for each 10 million gallons of gas in 1935 was 23, a reduction from 26.3.

There were 2575 deaths in 1934, reduced in 1935 to 2336, causes in 1935 assigned as follows:

Collision with pedestrian, 1072; other motor vehicle, 543; railroad train, 201; motorcycle or bicycle, 39; horse drawn vehicle, 12; street car, 27; fixed object, 132. Non-collision, 236. Others, 74.

PHILATELISTS WORRIED

Stamp collectors who try to keep up with all issues the world over are becoming worried by the increasing expense occasioned by the greater number of special issues. It was estimated that if a collector had bought one specimen of each new stamp issued in the world in the year ended Aug. 31, 1933, the cost would have been $757, a prohibitive figure for the average philatelist.

Generally speaking, a stamp is a stamp. Its purpose is to show that the cost of carrying a letter has been paid. Were it not for the fact that stamp collecting has become a hobby, a stamp could not be worth more than its face value if uncanceled. If cancelled, it could be worth only as much as waste paper.

However, persons with money began putting a high value on rare stamps purely because of their rarity. We are told that there is only one known specimen of the 1856 issue of British Guiana. The collector who owns that stamp has something that no one else possesses and that specimen, purely because there are no others like it, has commanded a price of $32,500. Stamps for the British island of Mauritius, also exceedingly rare, have sold for as much as $38,000.

Occasionally an error is made in the printing of a stamp, which, upon discovery, causes the postoffice to withdraw it from sale. Those specimens which have been sold, however, became sought eagerly by collectors. The United States government printed an air mail stamp with a face value of 24 cents, but inadvertently the airplane in the design appeared upside down. If you have such a stamp in your possession you may get as high as $2000 for it. Even the same stamp, with the error corrected in subsequent printing, has a catalogue value of 85 cents.

Governments are, or ought to be, extremely careful in the printing and distribution of stamps. The printing of special issues can be overdone to a point where the market will be flooded with a jumble of specimens, none of which will have much meaning. Furthermore governments usually seek to give equitable distribution to issues, especially limited ones, so that no favoritism is shown. Postmaster General Farley once came to grief over charges of favoritism, and it is reported that President Roosevelt, himself a philatelist, and certain other collectors obtained specimens before philatelists generally found them available. There was quite an uproar at the time, and Farley was forced to rectify his error.

Some collectors seek rare issues. Others seek complete collections of certain national issues. Others indulge their taste for color. Surcharged issues, commemorative issues and air mail issues have their followers. To some the stamp itself means little; the cancellation mark everything. Others ignore both design, issue and cancellation marks, and concentrate on perforations. The hobby has its own language and philatelists throughout the world are kin.

ALL IN THE NAME OF THE GREAT HUMANITARIAN

Paul Mallon, a leading Washington writer, says: "Do not take Mr. Hopkins' indignation too seriously. He has turned it on and off frequently of late. The imminence of the political campaign requires him occasionally to deny publicly what he says privately."

And—
"From now until election, everyone would be wise to believe only what is signed, sealed and delivered."

Isn't that somewhat of an unusual thing to be written about one of the closest personal representatives of the president of the United States? We think so. We might say as much about shifty persons who inhabit city halls, state capitols, and even the halls of congress, but when have we read from a reputable Washington correspondent such intimations of unreliability, untrustworthiness of the word of the direct agents of the White House?

Were it not for the fact that there have been too many instances when a question has been raised about what President Roosevelt himself did or did not say, would not most of us resent the implication that only things that are signed, sealed, and delivered are to be trusted?

Upon reflection, when have you ever known another president in whose case the question of veracity repeatedly has been raised by him or about him. We think of only one. His name, too, was Roosevelt.

Is it a situation to be desired?

Wee Scouty waded out and cried, "Come, Coppy, right up to my side. The water's flowing right along. We'll sift for gold right here." "Scoop up all of the sand you can, so you can sift it in the pan. Nighttime will overtake us, if you don't work fast, I fear."

"Okay," cried Coppy. "Here I come. Won't it be great, if we get some small bits of gold. We'll know them 'cause they'll sparkle in the light."

"If in this spot no gold is found we won't give up. We'll move around. The whole thing seems quite thrilling. Come, let's work with all our might!"

Of sifting they soon got the swing, but didn't find a single thing except a lot of white sand. Scouty shortly grew tired out.

"I've lifted heaps of sand," said he, "and I'm as tired as I can be. I wish some of the other tots were here to lend a hand."

"Oh, let's stick to it," Coppy cried. "Why, so far, we have hard-

"IF"

(Kipling Slightly Paraphrased.)

If you can keep your trade when all about you
Are losing theirs, and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when others doubt you,
And every day keep making patrons new,
If you can wait, and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
But yet keep on and daily advertise.If you can dream and not make dreams your master,
If you can think, and yet make ACTS your aim,
If you can meet successes or disaster
And treat these two conditions just the same;
If you can FEEL that only truth you've spoken,
Or written in your ads—no traps for fools,
Your advertising is a living token
Of earnest principles and honest rules.If you're content to start with small beginnings,
And find initial efforts meet their "cross,"
If you can patiently await your winnings,
And, in the meantime, suffer many a loss,
If you can keep your heart, and nerve and sinew
In duldest times, when business seems "all gone,"
And boldest advertising still continue,
Success will come to you for "holding on."If you can talk to crowds and keep your virtue,
And tell them things with "human nature" touch,
If you state facts, they'll surely never hurt you—
And then "make good," your profit will be much;
If you can fill the unrelenting minute
With sixty seconds worth of action done,
The goal is yours, and everything that's in it,
Success in advertising you'll have won!
—Fame.

STORIES IN STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

FIRST OF THE FIRST LADIES

THE woman pictured most frequently on U. S. stamps, and first of known identity, Martha Dandridge Custis Washington is well remembered as the first of the first ladies of America. Born of wealthy parents, widowed by death of an opulent landowner in 1757, and left with two out of four children she had by her previous marriage, this charming young woman became the wife of Col. George Washington early in 1759, at the age of 26.

Washington himself was only 27, and the two lived a happy and congenial life. No children were born to them, but the first president became a companion and guardian of Martha and John Custis. Mrs. Washington set a brilliant example as White House hostess.

Washington died on Dec. 14, 1799, and she followed him less than three years later.

The first portrait of Martha Washington appeared on the recent stamp of 1902. It was taken from a Gilbert Stuart painting, done in 1796, which now hangs in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. The same portrait, reversed, was used for the second Martha Washington stamp, the 4-cent value of 1922.

large delegation of ministers and laymen from all over the Dixon-Joliet district will be present and by night the grounds will be nice and clean. Caretaker Harvey Snyder will move to the grounds just as soon as the weather permits.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Montgomery of Dixon were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brucker, south of town.

Russel Fruit of Kirkland is visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Selma Fruit.

Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Miller and two daughters and Mrs. E. J. Wolf left Tuesday morning for North Manchester, Ind.

Mrs. J. E. Fissel and daughter, Miss Meryl of Freeport were Sunday afternoon callers at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Meyer and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Schultz.

The Bradford Community Club met Monday evening at the Hart school house. A good program was enjoyed in which Postmaster George Fruit, and Lowell Trottnow played a piano accordion duet, which was greatly enjoyed.

The Kilo Club was entertained on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. LeRoy J. Miller. All the members were present. Mrs. A. W. Crawford was an invited guest. The roll call, short poems brought forth some very lovely poems. Mrs. R. C. Gross gave a book reading, "Our Land" by Mary Heaton Vorse, which was very interesting. The next meeting will be held May 5 with Mrs. LaForrest Meredith. Mrs. Cecil Cravens, leader.

Mrs. Arthur Miller entertained with a six o'clock dinner Monday evening honoring the birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Josephine. The guests, five in number, were Misses Ione Butterbaugh, Georgia Peterman, Florence Bleking, Mary Jean Miller and June Hatch. Miss Josephine received some lovely gifts and hearty best wishes for many more birthday anniversaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith had as their dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gates and Mrs. L. R. Fioto of the Kingdom.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shriber from north of town, Mr. and Mrs. Hanson were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morris north of Dixon.

At the Lee county convention of Woman's Club to be held in the Methodist church Wednesday, Mrs. Fred Dow of Hinsdale will give a talk on "Gardens." Mrs. Dow several years ago was a teacher in the local high school. It will be a pleasure for her former pupils and friends to hear her.

Mrs. William Knox of Chicago was a week end guest at the home of her father, F. H. Hausen.

Conducted School
Mrs. Adelaide Fellows, nationally known home economist conducted the "New American" cooking school sponsored by the Illinois Northern Utilities Company in the Lincoln hall Thursday afternoon. About fifty ladies were present. Mrs. Fellows has had many years of experience conducting cooking schools throughout this country. For two years she rounded out her knowledge of expert cookery in a large room in Chicago. Recently this year she was responsible for the success of the International Cooking School in Chicago. Mrs. Fellows did her work in a Model General Electric kitchen. She featured innumerable recipes and gave many valuable ideas. She discussed also various steps pertaining to food marketing, money planning, food preserving, use of left-overs and kitchen arrangements. The ladies all felt well paid for the effort in going.

The following ladies received prizes:
Mrs. Harry Patterson—the cooked roast pork dinner.
Mrs. Wayne Bates—the cooked pork chop dinner.
Mrs. Guy Moulton—Cooked Swiss steak.
Mrs. Mabel Henry—Cocoa roll.
Mrs. Carl Spangler—Spinach mould.
Mrs. Fred Bettendorf—Vegetable salad.
Audrey Miller—Nut bread.
Mrs. George Hawbecker—Broiled steak.
Mrs. Dickery—Cake.
Mrs. Arthur Brucker—Pineapple fluff.
Mrs. Fellows is a very delightful talker and held her audience with much real pleasure.

Brethren Church
Paul Studebaker, Pastor

Sunday evening at 8:00 P. M. the Lanark Church of the Brethren will present a play here entitled, "Into Thy Kingdom." The Lanark pastor recommends it very highly. The entire community is invited to come and enjoy this program.

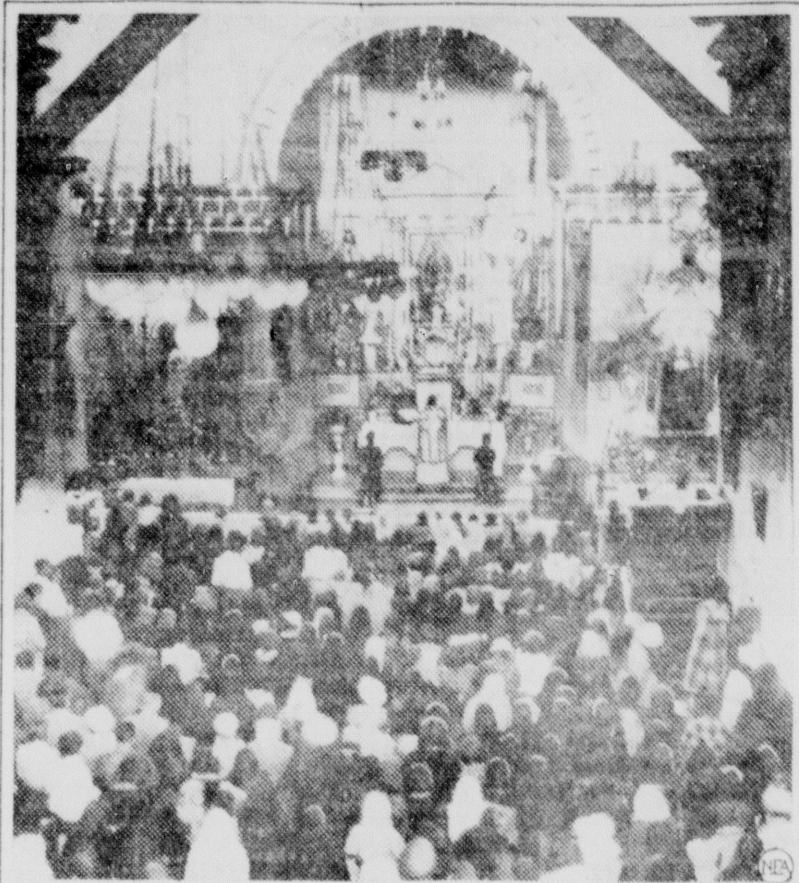

A missionary program will be given at 7:30 P. M. in which both the Y. P. D. and Adult C. W. will take part.

We invite anyone in the community to come and worship with us. Our Sunday school is growing. At the worship service you will hear good music and gospel sermons.

9:30 A. M.—Sunday school.

10:30 A. M.—Morning worship.

Catholics Again Worship in Mexico

A scene of unusual impressiveness, marking the resumption of Roman Catholic religious services by federal court sanction after a Mexican two-year ban, was this one, of mass being celebrated in the 276-year-old Guadalupe mission in Juarez. More than 12,000 worshippers attended the masses on the first day. Below are shown three happy Chihuahuan priests—left to right, Manuel Deoses, Salvador B. Uranga, and Jesus Grijalva—who were granted an injunction to prevent their arrest by civil authorities while the trio were officiating at masses.

Woman's Club Convention

The Lee County Women's Club convention will be held here Wednesday, April 29th in the Methodist church. With an all day meeting. All members of every club in the county are urged to be present. The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will serve a dinner in the basement.

We have only a summary of the program. Mrs. Herbert Parker, county president will preside. The convention will open at 10 o'clock. Rev. L. E. Winter will offer the invocation. Mr. Tobey of Sterling will give a talk on "Indian Welfare." Mrs. P. A. Dow of Hinsdale will be present and give her lecture on "Gardens." Mrs. Dow is a splendid talker. Miss March Mount of Milwaukee, Wis., representative of the United States Forest Service Dept. will give a talk. The Lee county Woman's Club chorus of twenty-five voices will make their first public appearance. The chorus is under the direction of Mrs. Nangle of Paw Paw. After dinner Postmaster George Fruit and Lowell Trottnow will play several selections on their piano accordions. The Girls' Glee Club of the high school will sing during the program. The public is invited. Whether you are a club member or not you will be heartily welcomed.

SCHOOL PROBLEMS

One of the chief problems facing this school is the problem of state accrediting of our high school.

Some of you may say "What is accrediting anyway? Why should there be so much talk about this matter?"

All over the state of Illinois there are high schools with thousands of pupils passing through them. All these pupils in their courses are supposed to get a fair start for life.

A state central bureau of education is necessary to make and enforce standards for all of the high schools and for all of these pupils.

If a school has not provided proper buildings, courses, teachers, or sanitary and safety conditions, then it will not be recognized until these conditions are remedied. It is in the interest of the education and safety of the pupils that these standards are held.

In our local school much has been done to meet the increased standards of today. For a time we stood still while the parade went ahead. Now we are cutting down their lead and regaining the standards necessary for turning out graduates fit to compete with any others of any other school.

The local school board is to be complimented for the interest they have displayed in past improvements. An efficient heating and ventilating plant, a great improvement, has been installed. Some of the floors have been refinished. The library has grown materially. New class rooms have been added and new equipment purchased for the science and vocational departments.

It is a long process to catch up though, and much is needed yet. The building should be redecorated in light colors, and better and adequate lighting fixtures should be installed. Floors should be placed in a sanitary condition and better provision made for the visual needs of the student. These proper conditions obtained, graduates will be best taken care of physically and mentally. For six hours a day, five days a week, for 144 weeks, for three solid years we spend our time in the surroundings of the high school. Since so much time is invested for our knowledge, why not give us the surroundings which will enable us to function best? We think you are interested in accrediting the school, not just for the title, "Accredited" but for the best interests of the next generation.

You have a community spirit! Join in and make our school equal to any of our neighbors.

Spectator

The track team enjoyed the visit of Mahomet's teams last Saturday. They were a fine bunch of fellows and those who entertained them enjoyed it.

The unusual spectacle of two coaches each claiming that the other's team won, was presented after the meet with Mahomet. The results were close and comparisons will be made to decide the winner.

Baseball is coming along and a game was scheduled with Steward for this week.

The debaters are planning some kind of festivity for the club.

Senior play practice is coming along well. The cast enjoys the play heartily and will recommend it as worth seeing, to anybody.

Franklin, Mahomet and Amboy Track Meet

Last Saturday Amboy high school was kind enough to again act as our hosts for a track meet, this time between the Mahomet and Franklin Grove track squads.

The meet was a nip and tuck affair with Franklin having a slight edge on the first places—winning eight while Mahomet won five firsts.

The outstanding marks of the day are listed below:

100 yard dash—10 sec., by Ralph Hansen, (F. G.)

440 yard dash—57.7, by Albert Wendell, (F. G.)

Discus, 97-1-4, by Blair, (Ma.)

Broad jump, 19.5, by Studebaker, (F. G.)

Hughes Sets Miami-N. Y. Mark

Leaving Miami at luncheon time and reaching Floyd Bennett Field, New York, hours before dinner, Howard Hughes, left, movie producer-pilot, beat all previous time for either direction over the 1095-mile route. In his low-wing Northrup all-metal monoplane, shown above surrounded by a crowd, Hughes averaged more than 250 miles an hour and hit a top speed of 290 miles. His mark beat by 39 minutes the best southbound record and by 1 hour 14 minutes the best northbound time.

Javelin, 141 ft., by Covill, (Amboy).

The local team is sending a squad of five to compete this week in the Urbana relays. The boys selected are:

Dale Yocum, Ralph Hansen, Albert Wendell, Dave Studebaker, Earl Blekking.

G. A. A. Meeting

Last Thursday the girls were entertained by Lois Gatz and her squad. After the roll call a short game of baseball was played. The two squads were then given a slip of paper on which a hike was planned. The squads met at the Lutheran church and were taken up to Ives drug store where they were treated to ice cream or candy, whichever they preferred. This Thursday a baseball game was played between the two squads.

The Girls' Glee club presented two numbers at the P. T. A. meeting this week.

The Glee clubs have started a study of entirely new music for their last six weeks of this year. Although the Girls' Glee club did not place for the state contest, we feel, since the Glee club is composed largely of lower classes, that this experience will help them next year, and we expect good work from them since they have had such a good start. Their last public appearance with the contest numbers was made before the P. T. A. this last Tuesday.

P. T. A. Meeting

Dr. Claude E. Vicks, a state supervisor, spoke at the P. T. A. meeting last Tuesday evening. A good sized crowd heard an interesting talk on the subject accrediting schools. At the close of his talk questions of the audience were answered by him. The subject is one that the school and P. T. A. is interested in and the opportunity of giving information was welcomed.

Home Economics

For the past few weeks the Home Management class has been studying "Planning and Furnishing of the Home". We are continuing this study with the addition of choosing the type of house we would like, and the size of the lot in keeping with the house. We are also studying the construction of the house, and the different kinds of material of which they can be made. At the present time, each member is planning a definite house, dealing with its exterior and interior planning.

The Home Economic and Agriculture departments are having a party April 27. They have appointed for the program committee: Raymond Patterson, Gerald Emmert, Kathryn Withey, Helen Hawkins, Refreshment committee, John Hain, Robert Mattern, Pauline Kelley, June Miller. The pupils of the Home Ec. department that are to wait on tables for the Father and Sons banquet are: Darlean Buck, June Miller, Josephine Miller, Jean Blank, Kathryn Withey and Helen Hawkins.

Happily Surprised

Mr. and Mrs. David Weigle, Jr., who were recently married, were happily surprised by their friends of the National Farm Loan association, Amboy Production Credit association, and Attorney W. A. Kehoe's offices, all of which are located in the old Amboy State bank building in Amboy, Monday.

The party drove from Amboy to Dixon to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weigle. The evening was spent in playing cards. A lunch furnished by the guests was served and the newlyweds were presented with a beautiful set of dishes by the guests. Those present were Attorney and Mrs. W. A. Kehoe, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Griffith, Miss Mary Kehoe, Miss Lois Golding, Miss Edith Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Miller.

Mr. Weigle is employed as book-keeper in the National Farm Loan office. Mr. and Mrs. David Weigle are both former Franklin Grove folks. Their many friends will be glad to know that they were remembered by his Amboy friends.

Young People's Meeting

The local Presbyterian church will entertain the representatives from all the Presbyterian churches in the northern half of the Young People's League at a rally Sunday afternoon at 3:00. Supper will be served at 5:30 P. M. and a stereopticon lecture will be given in the evening. Two classes will be held. A registration fee of 50c will be charged to all who attend.

Directors Reorganized

The directors of the Franklin Grove community high school district No. 250, met Monday evening and re-organized. President, Fred C. Cross; Secretary, Ira Buck.

The graded school of Franklin Grove also met Monday evening and re-organized. President, F. C. Cross; Clerk, George L. Spangler.

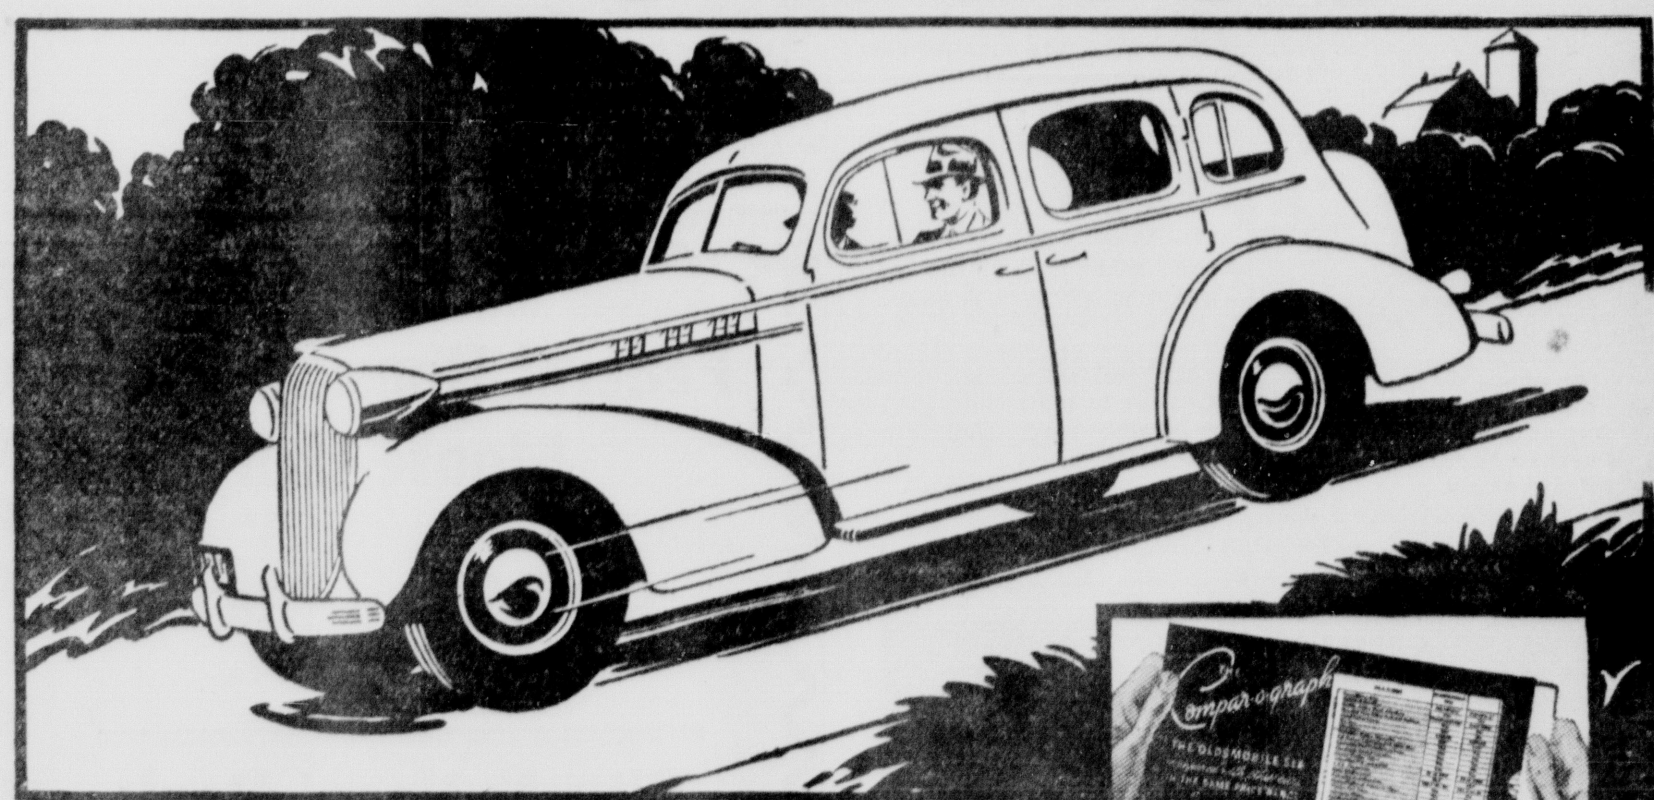

We have been informed that all of the teachers, in both high school and grades have been requested to return for another year.

MEMORIAL DAY PEKIN RELAYS GREAT EVENT

Galaxy of Thophies to Be Awarded Many Stars

The fourth annual Memorial Day Pekin Relay Carnival, boomed as being greater and more colorful than ever, will be unfolded at the James Field oval of Pekin high school on May 30.

Athletic Director Glen A. "Frenchy" Haussler, founder of the classic, has completed all arrangements for the event already and the invading hordes of eager path artists will find conditions for record-breaking achievements awaiting them.

The brilliance and success of the three previous ventures will be mirrored in the 1936 classic with officials expecting an even larger entry in both class A and class B divisions.

Awards Galore

The galaxy of awards presented to boys will prove one of the chief attractions of the fourth annual conclave. First of all there are the Sweepstakes trophies, 25-inch affairs, to be awarded the class winners. In the event the class A winner hauls from Cook county a third 25-inch traveling trophy will be awarded the highest team not hailing from Chicago. The Sweepstakes trophies must be won three times, consecutively, while all three are traveling awards.

Then the winner of each class is awarded a permanent trophy, a gold baton on a chain. Each relay winner hauls away a silver baton on a chain. Each silver baton measures 11 5/4 inches by 1 1/2 inch in diameter. Miniature silver batons will be given each member of the first five relay teams in each race with similar batons for placers in the six field events. Thus there are no less than three large traveling trophies, 13 permanent trophies and 250 individual awards.

Scoring for both relay and field events, all of which are included in team totals will be 5, 4, 3, 2, and 1. Scoring will be similar in each class, class B being restricted to teams of less than 300 students. Preliminaries in the field events are scheduled for 10:30 o'clock in the morning with all running events held over until the afternoon. In the event of too many teams for a single heat of the relays, two heats will be run, against time.

Qualify Automatically

State meet point winners in the field events need not qualify. All relays are run by laps, since the oval is slightly less than one-fifth of a mile. A lap is equivalent to 86 yards with one-lap, two-lap, and eight-lap relays billed, the first three being for each class, the latter being wide open.

The distance medley, one-lap Frosh-Soph, 280-yd. high hurdle shuttle, and 320-yard low hurdle shuttle relays are also open to all comers.

Parade Listed

All the trimmings of previous classics will be presented with an Olympic parade preceding the first event of the afternoon session. The parade is docketed for 1:55 P. M. and officials expect to have the stands jammed when the boys commence their march. The stands seat 2,000 persons. Tickets sell at 40 cents for adults and 25 cents for students.

Bradford needed 31 in 1933; Prophetstown and Palatine 18 each during the winning years.

JUDGE ISSUED INJUNCTION IN SCHOOL BATTLE

Illinois State Register: "Circuit Judge L. E. Stone issued a perpetual injunction Saturday restraining Williams township high school officials from providing bus transportation free or at only a nominal charge for pupils residing in non-high school territory of Sangamon county."

"The writ was obtained by Athens community high school officials and certain taxpayers. The Williams township policy in offering bus transportation allegedly attracted many pupils who otherwise would attend the Athens school."

"A hearing was held recently. Saturday, attorneys representing the Williams school consented to the issuance of the injunction. The law firm of Doyle, Sampson & Griffin represented Williams and the firm of Nelson & Kidder represented Athens."

ELLINWOOD IS CHICAGO HOPE FOR OLYMPICS

Cunningham Will Seek To Erase 2:10 Record

Des Moines, Ia., April 25.—(AP)—Ray Ellinwood, Chicago University's black-thatched Olympic hope, and Glenn Cunningham, another likely prospect for Uncle Sam's 1936 Olympic team, were billed in the top performances today as 1,500 athletes renewed their assault on time and distance at the 27th annual Drake relays.

The powerful Maroon runner, who ran a smashing 48.4 quarter to anchor the winning Chicago team in the second heat of the mile relay preliminaries yesterday, appears in a special 440-yard race today against Sunny Heg of Northwestern and Smokey Brothers, Rice Institute's great quarter miler.

Cunningham, holder of the world mile mark, set his sights on a new world record for 1,000 yards in another headline attraction. Five prominent middle distance runners were lined up against Glenn, who wants to wipe out the 2:10 mark held by the Italian Luigi Beccali.

Ellinwood, along with big Sam Francis, Nebraska's football great, and Alton Terry of Hardin-Simmons, gave the opening day crowd of 9,000 its greatest thrills yesterday.

Moving along with a rhythmic, tremendous stride, he overcame a five-yard handicap to whip Heg in the anchor leg of a mile relay preliminary, giving the Maroons a 3:19.4 mark, the best performance of the trials.

Throws Spear 219.36 Feet

Terry, a big javelin tosser from the Texas plains, whipped the spear out 219.36 feet in the preliminaries for a new Drake mark. His throw eclipsed the old record of 210.74 made in 1935 by Mark Panther, of Iowa, defending champion, who finished third along the qualifiers.

Francis continued his successful performances in this season's relay carnivals by winning the discus at 149.76 feet. The Cornhusker ace, winner of the shot put at the Texas and Kansas games, defeated Jess Petty of Rice, a favorite, by 2.47 feet.

The Irish of Notre Dame loomed as possible double winners in the sprint relays. The Notre Dame foursome turned in the best preliminary time of 42.3 in the 440-yard event, and spurred over the 880-yard route in 1:27.8.

Mason-Dixon Court Finish In Women's Department Today

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., April 25.—(AP)—Helen Fulton and Mrs. Virginia Rice Johnson took over the courts today to decide the women's Mason-Dixon tennis championship while Don Budge and Bryan (Betsy) Grant saved their duel for a Sunday windup.

Grant, Atlanta's Davis Cup star, won his final berth yesterday by upsetting Hal Surface, Jr., of Kansas City, the young ace who had removed Wilmer Allison, ranking No. 1 U. S. player and Davis Cup captain. The score was 7-5, 8-6, 10-8.

Mrs. Johnson, Boston star, won her way to the women's finals by defeating Norma Taubele of New York. Miss Fulton, whose home is in Winnetka, Ill., was the victor in a battle royal with Eunice Dean of San Antonio, Tex.

TIGERS STAGE FIRST TRIPLE PLAY OF YEAR

Both Cubs, Tigers Win Games Over Tough Rivals

By Andy Clarke
Associated Press Sports Writer

Things are looking up for the baseball champions as they move on apace in the American and National leagues.

Looking at the situation from nearly every angle, the prospects are brightening for the Detroit Tigers and the Chicago Cubs.

Both the Tigers and the Cubs scored their second successive wins yesterday, the first time this season either team has been able to put two together. They were decisive conquests with the Tigers manipulating the first triple play of the season and Tommy Bridges finishing his first game as the St. Louis Browns went down to defeat 9-3.

Lon Warneke, who failed to finish in two previous starts, pitched seven hit ball as the Cubs moved down the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-1.

Indians Sock Homers

In other games, the Cleveland Indians, leading the American league race, rode a pair of home runs and three costly Chicago errors to a 6-2 victory over the White Sox.

Danny MacFayden pitched the Boston Bees to a 4-1 victory over the Phils and Lefty Gomez, wild but wily, hurled the Yankees to a 10-2 win over the Senators. The Athletics beat the Red Sox 3-1 for their second successive win over that team, driving

'TERRIBLE' TURK ADDS TO SHIKAT MAT PROBLEMS

Columbus, O., April 25.—(AP)—Dick Shikat was in the midst of new complexities today following his defeat in Detroit last night by the grimacing Turk, Ali Baba, and the consequent loss of his claim to the world's heavyweight championship.

What effect the defeat would have on the suit of Joe Alvarez of Boston, matchmaker for Promoter Paul Bowser, against Shikat and Al Haft, Columbus promoter, was conjectural. Some said it would end the action to declare valid the contract Alvarez says he holds over Shikat and to get an accounting of Shikat's receipts under Haft's management. Some said it wouldn't.

Haft and Alvarez each contend Shikat is their sole property, but Federal Judge Mel G. Underwood is the referee in this tangle and he is expected to rule next week.

To mix it up further, Shikat, who was injured in the bout, asserted from his hospital bed in Detroit that Baba had fouled him by throwing him from the ring onto the ringside chairs.

But all must wait until Judge Underwood decides on the basis of testimony, which closed yesterday until Monday morning.

The testimony brought out interesting data on the "inside" workings of the mat game, but Shikat, on the defense, promises more startling disclosures when he gets a chance to give his version next week.

GATES OPENED AT CHURCHILL DOWNS MEETING

Kentucky Derby Race Entrants Can Warm Up For Classic

Louisville, Ky., April 25.—(AP)—They threw open the gates at Churchill Downs today for the spring race meeting to be climaxed May 2 by the colorful Kentucky Derby, and with Brevity, Coldstream, Bien Joli, He Did and other likely Derby candidates slated to face the barrier this afternoon, turf interest in Old Kentucky hit the ceiling.

The historic Clark handicap, inaugurated in 1875, the same year as the Derby, was the headline of the opening day card. But it was overshadowed in interest by the sophomore purse, seventh race on the program, which brought together a group of the most highly regarded Derby colts now quartered at the Downs.

Brevity, Joseph E. Widener's hopeful and the Derby favorite will test his speed in this seven furlong affair, as will Coldstream, C. B. Shaffer's great speedster, Bien Joli, and possibly Banister, in whom Col. E. R. Bradley pins his hopes of another Derby conquest. "I'll be tested in this event also. Others' expected to start are He Did, Noble Sir, Sangreal, Silas, Watercure, Onwetsia, Jimmie Cabanis and Szar. Wise Duke, Boston Pal, Judge Kavanagh, and Prince Fellow are also eligible.

PRESIDENT WILL DELIVER SPEECH IN N. Y. TONIGHT

Will Probably Be His Last Address Before
June Convention

Washington, April 25.—(AP)—Completing work on one of the last speeches he will make before the June convention, President Roosevelt prepared today to head for New York City to address the National Democratic Clubs there tonight.

With New Dealers and their opponents warming to the campaign fight, there was much guessing as to the topic of the speech, and whether Roosevelt would unloose an attack on the opposing camp.

Many state and national leaders, Tammany chiefs and others will be in the audience to hear the speech, which will be broadcast at 9:30 P. M. Central Standard time.

As the President summoned his special train for the journey to the metropolis, other party leaders, at Philadelphia, plunged into the work of planning for their national convention there in June.

Fight Intensified
All over the country, by means of the spoken word and campaign literature, the political fight intensified. From both the Republican and the Democratic national committees there came a cross-fire of pamphlets.

The Republicans issued an eight-page rotogravure described as "A Pictorial Review of the Roosevelt Record." On the front page was a picture of the President and Chairman James A. Farley. Neither was smiling. Over the picture was the caption "Worried?" and below were the questions, "Where is the $200,000,000 smile? Are they thinking of November?"

Charles Michelson, publicity director for the Democrats, attacked the American Liberty League and Frank Kent, columnist, in his weekly clipping.

"Hark to the song of the DuPont Liberty league which has just proclaimed its unflinching political neutrality," said the statement, adding that the league had been as consistent in its non-partisanship as "that other exemplar of freedom from prejudice, Frank Kent, the leading columnist of the anti-Roosevelt campaign."

Knox Attacks Farley
An attack on Postmaster General Farley came last night from Col. Frank Knox, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination. In a statement addressed to Roosevelt, he declared:

"Under Mr. Farley's benevolence the spirit of the post office department has been nearly wrecked. In 1933 a total of 3,390 presidential postmasters were confirmed by the Senate. Out of 3,369 only 25 postal employees won advancement from the ranks."

Arguments for and against the New Deal were presented last night before a mock "national convention" of Northwestern University students at Evanston, Ill.

Dean Clarence Manion of Notre Dame law school replied to attacks on the administration made by former Senator James A. Reed of Missouri.

ROCHELLE NEWS

BY ARTHUR T. GUEST.

Rochelle.—Five firms have submitted bids on a 1000 h. p. Diesel engine and generator to be installed at the power plant according to specifications on file at the city hall. The city of Rochelle contemplates letting the contract at the regular meeting, Monday, April 27th. The following firms have submitted sealed bids: The Busch-Sulzer Co., the Fairbanks-Morse Co., the McIntosh-Seymour Co., the Norberg Mfg. Co. and the Worthington Co.

The consumption of electrical power in Rochelle has increased to such an extent during the past year that the city is faced with the necessity of purchasing additional equipment to keep pace with the growing demand.

Consumption of power has increased nearly 38 per cent in the past three years in this city. The total consumption of power in 1933 was 2,313,000 K. W. hours; the 1934 total consumption was 2,567,000 K. W. hours (an increase of over 10 per cent). The first five months of 1935 show an average increase of 21 per cent over the same months of the previous year. August and September prove to be the peak months in electrical output at the local plant, due to industrial activity.

The fiscal year always ends on the 30th of April. In 1933 the peak of 241,000 K. W. hours was reached in August; the 1934 peak was 265,000 K. W. hours, attained in September; the 1935 peak was 342,000 K. W. hours, made in August, which broke all records at the local plant.

The annual high school alumni reception to the graduating class will be held on June 4th. The association plans to present the annual scholarship awards and to make a substantial gift of equipment when the new athletic field at the high school has been completed. The athletic field, which is under construction at the present time, will comprise an entirely new football field, quarter-mile track and three asphalt tennis courts.

Officers for the alumni association for the ensuing year include: Charles Olson, president; Francis Hohenadel, secretary; Dan Sullivan, treasurer.

Charles Heron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Heron, who celebrated his fifth birthday on April 20th, held a party for his friends Friday afternoon. The party was delayed due to illness in the family.

Brutal Father is Given Jail Term

Xenia, O., April 25.—(AP)—A 15-year-old boy suffered in silence today the tortures of a flogging for which his father, Amiel C. Bent, 39, began serving a jail term.

Amiel Bent, Jr., a high school freshman, remained silent while physicians sought to heal at a hospital his severely lacerated and bruised body.

The father, accused of binding the boy's wrists and beating him as he was suspended from a door transom, was fined $200 and sentenced to six months in jail on a conviction under a seldom-invoked Ohio "torture" law.

Physicians said young Bent would recover unless infection developed in lacerated places where salt had been rubbed to increase the pain. The youth was on parole to his father from the juvenile court in connection with the attempted theft of pigeons.

GOOD NEIGHBOR LEAGUE FORMED FOR "NEW DEAL"

Will Fight Program of American Liberty
League; Program

Washington, April 25.—(AP)—Bearing the endorsement of President Roosevelt, a newly formed "Good Neighbor League" entered the national picture today. One of its leaders said it would fight for ideals "opposite" to those of the American Liberty League, bitter critic of the New Deal.

The new league, in its salutatory announcement, listed several leaders in church, educational, peace and social welfare groups as among the directors.

Dr. Stanley High, Protestant clergyman who recently was engaged by the Democratic national committee to do organization work, is on a three-member executive committee which, the announcement said, will have actual direction of the affairs of the organization.

The other two members of this committee are Col. Patrick Henry Callahan of Louisville, Ky., well known Catholic layman who gained national prominence some years ago as a prohibitionist; and Mrs. Estelle M. Sternberger, prominent in the peace movement and in Jewish charities.

Asked if the organization would combat the Liberty League, Dr. High said:

High's Statement
"We just intend to go ahead with our own program and if in advancing our ideals which are opposite to those of the American Liberty League, we should seem to combat the Liberty League, we would, nevertheless go right ahead."

"However, we have no desire to revive the American Liberty League, which is moribund, by combatting it."

"Some of our ideals are those of Franklin D. Roosevelt, while some he has not heard of."

Roosevelt yesterday received George Foster Peabody, Georgia banker and director of the Warm Spines Foundation, and Miss Lillian D. Wald, noted New York social worker, both of whom were listed as co-chairmen of the Good Neighbors League.

The announcement said Roosevelt endorsed the principles of the organization "which has just been formed to work for the safeguarding of the progress already made toward the good neighbor ideal, and to support those practices in our national and international relationships and those political conditions who give the best hope that that progress may be continued."

Human Values First

The name chosen for the new league recalled the "good neighbor" policy frequently stressed by Roosevelt in connection with international and domestic affairs.

The announcement listed directors of the league as Bishop Edgar Blake, bishop of the Methodist Episcopal churches in the Detroit area; Mrs. Geline MacDonald Bowman, former president, Business & Professional Women's Clubs; Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, noted for her past fights for women's suffrage; Dr. James William Crabtree, headquarters representative of the World Federation of Education Associations; A. P. Giannini, chairman, Bank of America; Dr. Frank Porter Graham, president of the University of North Carolina; Clifford V. Gregory, editor, The Prairie Farmer; George M. Harrison, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks; Miss Fannie Hurst, author; Dr. John A. Lapp, former president of the National Conference of Social Work; Rabbi Morris S. Lazaron; Dr. Henry Goddard Leach, editor, the Forum magazine; George Fort Milton, publisher, the Chattanooga News; Thomas Nebbett, president, National Student Federation of America; Major General John F. O'Bryan; Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, former president, General Federation of Women's Clubs; Angus Roy Shannon, lawyer; Dr. W. A. Sutton, superintendent of schools, Atlanta, Georgia and former president of the National Education Association.

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
Philadelphia, April 25.—(AP)—Spurred by this year's Olympic goal, as well as some of the brisk intersectional rivalry in the 42-year history of the event, star track athletes from Texas, Michigan and Ohio held the spotlight of the Pennsylvania relay carnival today as they threatened record-smashing challenges to eastern rivals.

An injury to Elace Peacock, 20-year-old Temple University Negro and national sprint champion, spoiled his prospective duel with Ohio State's Jesse Owens in either the 100 meters dash or the broad jump, but the final day's program promised plenty of baton-passing thrills.

Peacock strained a muscle yesterday in the 440-yard relay while trying vainly to overtake Harvey (Chink) Wallender, University of Texas ace who carried the Longhorns to a record-breaking triumph in their carnival debut. The injury, it developed overnight, was not serious but his coach, Ben Ogden, decided not to run any further risks with his star, especially with the Olympics in view.

Owens in Five Events

Owens was entered in five individual or relay events on today's program but his coach, Larry Snyder, said he would compete in only two, the 100 meters and the broad jump. Rated off the speed he showed yesterday in helping his team capture the sprint medley relay title, Owens looked to be in prime shape to blast carnival records in both specialties.

Peacock set the 100 meters mark of 16.6 last year while the broad jump standard, 25 feet, 4 1/4 inches, was made by Ed Hamm of Georgia Tech in 1930.

The University of Michigan, which hasn't won any relay titles here since pre-war days and hasn't been a contender in at least a decade, entered crack teams in three major races. The Wolverines figured to give the favored Manhattan quartet a hot fight, besides bidding for the two-mile and four-mile championships.

Walter (Duke) Wood, Cornell star, featured the opening individual competition with a double victory. He won the shotput with a toss of 48 feet, 11 1/2 inches, then beat the carnival record-holder and favorite, Anton Kishon of Bates by heaving the discus 150 feet, 11 1/2 inches.

Gene Venke's first outdoor appearance, as anchor runner for Pennsylvania in the sprint medley, was not impressive. The Quaker flier started the final 880 yard leg on even terms with Charles Becham, Ohio State star and Big Ten champion, but yielded a big early lead to his rival and failed by five yards to over-take him with a stretch rally.

POSSIBILITY OF WAR ISSUE HELD BEFORE FRENCH

Stressed by Orators in Campaign Which Closes
Tomorrow

Paris, April 25.—(AP)—International issues cast Domestic disputes into the background today as 4,807 candidates closed France's bitter parliamentary election campaign with new evocations of the possibility of war.

Extreme rightist and leftist newspapers declared in scorching editorials, on the eve of tomorrow's election to fill 615 seats in the Chamber of Deputies, that a victory for their opponents would be sure to bring a war.

Several newspapers said French military sources, after checking fortifications in Germany's remilitarized Rhineland, believed the work would be completed by winter, making Reichswehr Adolf Hitler "ready for war" by next year.

The newspapers asserted Germany "has not lost a day since March 7th, the day Nazi troops marched into the Rhineland, in rushing construction of fortifications for the Netherlands to the Swiss borders."

Permanent System

The system was described as in no way comparable to the Maginot line of defenses on France's eastern frontier, but consisting of permanent concrete trenches, with machine gun nests, hidden artillery batteries and tank bases.

The French faced the task of electing a new Chamber of Deputies, to control the government policies for a four-year term.

The organized leftist "people's front" of Communists, Socialists and Radical-Socialists, the latter now the dominant party in the chamber, were expected generally to win a further wing to the left in the election.

Opposing the people's front for the power to control the chamber, and therefore to overthrow the government if desired, were the parties of the moderate center, the conservative right and the nationalistic right, comparatively less organized.

METHODIST BOY SCOUTS TAKE IN NEW TENDERFEET

Troop's Membership is Boosted to 27 By Initiations

Several Tenderfoot Scouts were initiated into the "mysteries" of Troop 72, Methodist church, Friday night, having successfully passed their knot-tying requirements. All Scouts inducted agreed the initiation rivalled the most hair-raising college ceremony.

Scoutmaster George Kanupf announced Friday night the troop membership is now twenty-seven boys with twenty paid registration on the roll. Troop 72 is rising continually and is now in a flourishing condition with three Patrols striving feverishly to win the June award for Scout ideals. The winning Patrol will receive a dinner from the two losing Patrols.

Three Patrols

Three Patrols competing in Troop 72 are the Fox Patrol, headed by Don Valle, the Panther Patrol captained by Warren Burns, and the new and novel Skunk Patrol with Miles Loneragan leading. Troop 72's Skunk Patrol is probably the only Patrol dedicated to this animal in the United States of America.

Eleven boys were present at the meeting and initiatory rites last night. Several youths received Second Class and First Class cards and passed tests in pacing. Two new members were brought to the meeting for the first time and given instruction toward their Tenderfoot requirements, by Assistant Scoutmaster Herbert Walker.

Some of the Scouts are now appearing in uniform or partially uniformed. Robert Scott was fully garbed in Scout uniform with khaki hat and blue and yellow neckerchief.

VOLUME 4. APRIL 25, 1936. No. 16

The farmer and his newly-hired hand were passing through the stable. The farmer's mule suddenly let out with both feet, caught the farmer in the seat of the pants and smashed him up against the wall.

The hired hand grew pale. He helped the farmer to his feet. "Gosh," he cried, "What a bad mule!"

"I know," said the farmer weakly. "He clips me that way every morning."

"Why don't you beat the hide off that danged mule?"

Everybody sure looked nice, Easter morning, in all their new clothes. Pears to us a coat of paint on the houses would have about the same effect on the town that the new bonnets and things had on the folks, Sunday. We can sell you paint.

Years ago, we discovered that the minute we sold cheap or inferior goods, we lost customers, self respect, and money. That's why everything we sell now is the finest quality—the best we can buy for you.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

LINDA BOURNE, 20 years old, pretty and socially prominent in the little middlewestern town of Newkirk, wrote PETER GARDINER, political reporter, when she goes to the Blade office with an announcement about a charity bazaar.

The same day Linda's father, in financial difficulties, kills himself. Peter goes to the Bourne home to break the news to Linda. Misunderstanding, she treats him rudely. Later she apologizes, confesses that her father's money is gone and she must find a job. She tells Peter about a scenario she has written and he asks to read it.

Linda promises to come to his home Sunday to meet his mother. In the meantime, DIX CARTER, with whom Linda is in love, telephones and Linda forgets her date with Peter.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER IV

A DATE was a date, and it had to be kept in Linda's code, but when Pete Gardiner's call reminded her of their date for Sunday afternoon she thought of Dix and did something she had never done in her life before. She lied to him.

"I'm terribly sorry," Linda said, "but I'm afraid I can't keep our date. Something unexpected, something about the—the estate has come up—and I've got to see someone at 4 o'clock."

There was the briefest of silences. Linda couldn't know that it was bitter disappointment. Then Pete tried again:

"If it's not going to keep you late, couldn't I pick you up for supper?"

It was Linda's turn to hesitate. Dix hadn't said anything about supper. He had said he would come by around 4. Hoping that he would stay, she had already prepared a little supper for them.

"I'm afraid it will be too late, and . . . I'm . . . I'm really sorry," she said almost truthfully.

"Okay, we'll try another time," Pete said with a lightness he didn't feel. And when he had run off, his lips tightened as they had when he was a little boy.

Perhaps Miss Bourne didn't care for the idea of going across the tracks to the Gardiner home for supper.

Linda didn't think of that or of Pete's mother until much later that day. Dix was coming!

It was nearly 5 when Dix came. His roadster roared into the drive and, through the curtains, Linda saw him glance at his wrist-watch before he raised the knocker.

"Hello," she said in just the tone she had always said hello to him before, but embarrassment had fallen on him. She could forget while she was with him, the heavy hand of circumstance that had descended since last they had met. Dix couldn't. It was not strong enough, this bond between them. Linda had become someone else. She was dramatized in his mind, and try as she would, she could not change things.

He told her gravely of his activities, and when she tried to speak of her father and all that Dix already knew (because she wanted to clear away the something between them so that they could find each other as they had been) Dix would not allow her.

He wouldn't have tea, he said, glancing once more at his watch. He had to "pick up some people."

In her imagination, Linda saw Jane Wyatt's laughing face held up to his, and she propped her chin up mentally.

"Tell me about the Glee Club concert," she said.

He did. Precisely the way he would have told his mother. Carefully he reviewed the program. After that, Linda gave up. When he rose she got his hat and, summoning a smile she did not feel, she said, "I'm not very gay now, Dix, or very good company, but I hope you'll come again."

"You bet," he answered heartily, and she tried not to see his relief. "We'll have to do something one of these nights. Something quiet."

Very calmly Linda took the tea-tray to the kitchen. Very calmly she wrapped the untouched sandwiches in a damp cloth, put the cream back in the bottle, rinsed the dishes. Calmly she emptied the ash trays. Then she took all the flowers out and dumped them in the rubbish basket. She went upstairs and squeezed her eyes tightly shut so that the tears would not come through.

BUT they did come, and when she had cried until her nose was red, her lip swollen and her eyes burned back in her head and she was as disgusted with herself as she was hurt, she took off her velvet gown and got out her old tweeds, the worn riding hat, and her brogues.

Linda felt the need of fresh air and sympathy. When she set out, with small hands clenched in the pockets of her coat, she sought only the fresh air, but when her mind had cleared itself

AMBOY NEWS

Amboy—Mrs. A. W. Sperling of Fischer, Ill., who has been visiting at the home of her father, Preston Wolcott for the past three weeks, will return home Sunday.
The Pilgrim Daughters of the Congregational church will meet at the home of Misses Mildred and Minnie Entorf, Wednesday evening, April 29.
Mrs. G. P. Finch of Dixon visited at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna Klein Friday and attended the cooking school at the W. R. C. hall.
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Near are the parents of a baby girl born at the Amboy hospital Friday morning. Mrs. Near was formerly Rachel Whitnauer.
Edward Morrissey is now employed at the highway department in Dixon.
Monday afternoon, April 27, at the Amboy Women's club meeting, Mrs. Otto Schade of Ashton, formerly Miss Leila Barlow of Amboy, will be the speaker for the afternoon. Mrs. Schade will present a Travelogue, "Old Mexico" and will also display some Mexican work. Mrs. Schade visited in Mexico last summer and has a very interesting lecture prepared. Music will be furnished by the Amboy township high school boys' quartet. This will be the last meeting before the annual club luncheon which will be held in May. On May 11, the club will sponsor a benefit tea, antique handwork exhibit and an informal musical.
Mrs. O. R. Sherbet had the misfortune of severely scalding her right arm from the shoulder to the wrist when a kettle of boiling water overturned. The burns are not considered dangerous but are very painful.
Mrs. LeRoy June was visiting in Amboy Monday afternoon.
The Men's club of the Congregational church will meet Monday evening, April 27. Roy Russell is chairman of the program.
The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Thompson. The meeting will begin at 2:30 P. M.
Dave Spencer of Dixon and Chas. Buckingham of Amboy spent Wednesday in Springfield on business.
Members of the Arbutus Chapter No. 553 O. E. S. will hold a practice initiation at the regular meeting Tuesday evening, April 28. Refreshments will be served.
J. E. Haas has been absent from his duties at the store owing to illness.
Walter Scott and Roy Ross are both driving new cars.
Mrs. William Lafferty and son Billy spent Friday in Tampico.
Miss Mary Loan of Sublette was visiting friends and relatives in Amboy Friday.
H. H. Badger spent Friday in Rockford visiting his sister, Miss Lucy Badger, who underwent a major operation at the Rockford hospital. Miss Badger is recovering very nicely.
Miss Zetta Boehle was an overnight guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kellen Tuesday.

DAILY HEALTH

ABNORMAL GROWTH.
In his lecture on "Growth, Normal and Abnormal," delivered at the last meeting of the American Medical Association, Professor William Boyd, of the University of Manitoba faculty of medicine, dealt first with normal growth and later applied the facts so presented to the problem of abnormal growth, especially that of cancer.
While growth ceases in adult life, the body cells still retain their capacity for growth. Were it not so, repair of tissues following injury would be impossible.
Apparently, however, the very destruction of certain cells provokes the remaining ones to reparative growth.
The normal repair growth activities of cells bear a suggestive relationship to the abnormal cancer growth. The one is controlled growth while cancer is uncontrolled growth.
From numerous animal experiments it appears that normal cells may be stimulated to cancerous growth and reproduction by a variety of agents. On the other hand, there also appear to be inherent hereditary predispositions in certain cells to cancerous development.
In this connection Professor Boyd cites an immensely interesting and suggestive experiment on cancer produced in mice by the external application of tar.
Nine mice fed on an ordinary diet and subjected to tar all developed and died of tar cancer. Ten mice subjected to tar but fed on a high vitamin E diet did not develop tar cancer.
Apparently, it is impossible in mice exposed to tar to make them constitutionally resistant to an extrinsic, that is, external cancer-producing agent.

Monday—Vitamin E: 1.
The Interstate Commerce Commission has been informed by one of the largest air transport companies in the country that the line will be forced to suspend operations unless the government increases the airmail pay.
Airplanes are used frequently in Switzerland to locate stranded Alpinists, and Swiss air lines have a number of planes which can easily be transformed into first-class flying ambulances.
Twenty-one scheduled air lines in the United States carried 41,330 passengers in February of this year. Last year 34,998 passengers were carried during the same period.

NEW LIFE FOR OLD FURS
Those furs, worth today so much more than you paid for them, will look as valuable as they really are if you will have them scientifically dry-cleaned.
Every hair is revitalized and brightened by our modern process—the skin is softened and given new life, and of course, that applies to the silk and satin linings, too.
And, not the least important, dry-cleaning destroys moths and the tiniest egg, that if neglected, might grow into a moth family.
Have your furs dry-cleaned before storing, and again when you take them out. If you do you'll never have to apologize for last year's scarf, nestroys!

Instead of having only one Mont Blanc, like Switzerland, Colorado has more than 50 peaks that are over 14,000 feet high—more than a thousand over 10,000 feet high! There's no place on earth where you can see more wonderful scenery than in Colorado.
That's the candid opinion of Carveth Wells, world famous reporter and explorer, who plans to tell some surprising truths about "The Silver State" in his April 26 coast-to-coast radio broadcast for Continental Oil company.
"Although Colorado, the 'Mother of Rivers' is best known for her inspiring timberline scenery," says Wells, "visitors also find much to intrigue them in the state's vast agricultural plains regions. Near Sterling, for example, is one of America's best known graveyards for prehistoric animals. And geologists say there's enough coal in Colorado to last the United States for the next 700 years."
Local radio listeners who wish to hear Wells on Sunday, April 26, may do so by dialing station WGN at 10:15 to 10:45 o'clock E. S. T.
